

Distribution Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air "Stolen Honor" days before the election is dangerous and destructive.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. With the exception of a ludicrous invitation to John Kerry to defend himself after "Stolen Honor," this film ignores objectivity and fairness and is harmful to the media and the nation. I am increasingly concerned that the news I read and hear is becoming more a tool of politicians and less an outlet for the dissemination of information.

With a public license, Sinclair Broadcasting is crossing into dangerous territory. Public information that is controlled and distributed by a single party is something against which my husband, John Kerry, and thousands of others have fought and died to defeat.

Please be advised and register my concern and dismay.

Thank you
Jamie Dougherty